

Privacy Policy

When you are using our services, you understand and recognize that you are trusting us with your information. We understand that this is a big responsibility, and we work hard and take extra measures to protect your information. We will not share your information with any third-party members except when necessary to proceed in providing agreed upon services, including but not limited to, booking hotels, purchasing permits, purchasing tickets, and reserving airfare.

We retain some of the data we collect for different periods of time depending on what it is and how it is used. Most of the data is deleted after your trip such as credit card information or passport information. Some data is retained for longer periods of time when necessary for legitimate business or legal purposes, such as security or financial record-keeping.

We reserve the right to use any photos taken by one of our hired photographers on our public sites, social media pages, or other public domains. We will not use your personal photos without your consent.

We reserve the right to share your information outside of Kusa Treks if we have good-faith belief that access, use, preservation, or disclosure of the information is reasonably necessary to meet any applicable law, regulation, legal process, or enforceable governmental request or detect, prevent, or otherwise address fraud, security, or technical issues.
